TRANSFERS BETWEEN ORGANIZATIONS

How does it work?

The transfer of an employee from one government organization to another is a two-part process; transfer-out and transfer-in. Each step is dependent on the previous one and, therefore, the transfer-in cannot be initiated before the transfer-out is completed. The process may vary depending on the government organizations involved.

Transfer-out

Initial department

Following the employee's notice of departure, the manager sends a Pay Action Request and the employee's new letter of offer to the Trusted Source to initiate the transfer-out.

The Trusted Source will then forward the request to the Pay Centre.

Pay Centre

The compensation advisor corrects any outstanding pay issues that may have an impact on this transfer. This step may take several months depending on the complexity of the employee's pay file.

The compensation advisor then notifies the new department's human resources that the transfer-in is ready for processing.

Transfer-in

New department

Human Resources creates the employee's file in the human resources system (such as PeopleSoft), which generates a case at the Pay Centre.

Pay Centre

The compensation advisor performs the actions related to the transfer-in, such as:

1. Transferring leave balances; and
2. Adjusting the salary (for example: promotion and bilingual bonus).

A Timely Goodbye

Did you know... timeliness matters for departures too! If you are retiring or leaving the public service earlier than expected, it's important to inform the Pay Centre at least 30 days in advance by submitting a Pay Action Request (PAR) via the Trusted Source.

Transferring to another organization? Remember to provide your manager with the letter of offer as soon as possible in order to initiate the transfer of your pay file.

For more information on how to ensure a smooth departure from the Department, please refer to the intranet page Setting Sail.

TIPS & TRICKS: TRANSFER OUT

Are you about to transfer to another department?
Before you leave:

- ▶ Put your myKey on a USB key so you can continue to use it until it is transferred;
- ▶ Take a screen shot of your leave balances from PeopleSoft. Make sure it is dated and signed by your current manager. This will allow you and your new manager to adequately track your leave balances until your file is transferred.
